Safeguarding our biometric future

Document Control:

Title	Risk Management Policy & Strategic Risk Register
Prepared by	Director
Reviewed by	SBC Team
Date	November 2025

Introduction

This document sets out the Scottish Biometric Commissioner's (SBC) risk management plan in line with the Strategic Plan, annual business plan for the period and the Business Continuity Policy. It sets out our appetite for risk and how we assess the risks to achieving our strategic outcomes. It should be read in conjunction with our Risk Management Policy, within the Scheme of Governance and Risk Handbook published on our website.

Risk Appetite

Our current overall risk appetite is defined as OPEN. This means the SBC will continue to encourage new thinking and invest in people, systems and processes that will enable the organisation to achieve continuous improvement in the quality and user-focus of our services.

The SBC aims to balance the methods it uses to control risks so it can both support innovation and the imaginative use of resources and continue to provide best value. The SBC will seek to control all probable risks which have the potential to:

- cause significant harm to users, staff, and stakeholders
- compromise severely the reputation of the organisation
- have financial consequences that could endanger the organisation's viability
- jeopardise significantly the organisation's ability to carry out its core functions
- threaten the organisation's compliance with law and regulation

Descriptors

AVERSE	Avoidance of any risk exposure recognising this will have little or no potential for reward/return
MINIMAL	Willing to accept some low risks, while maintaining an overall preference for safe delivery options despite the probability of these having mostly restricted potential for reward/return
CAUTIOUS	Tending towards exposure to modest levels of risk to achieve acceptable, but possibly unambitious outcomes
OPEN	Prepared to consider all delivery options and select those with the highest probability of productive outcomes, even when there are elevated levels of associated risk
HUNGRY	Eager to be innovative and accept the associated high-risk levels to secure successful outcomes and meaningful reward/return

Risk Appetite

	Appetite	Risk
1	OPEN	The SBC fails to deliver the Strategic Plan and fulfil statutory duties due to insufficient funding, resources or the inability to influence external factors and/or the environment within which we operate
2	OPEN	The SBC fails to provide value, demonstrate outcomes and the positive impact of our work and does not engage effectively and timely with stakeholders or specific-interest groups within and across the policing and community justice landscape or fails to recognise opportunities to build and manage effective stakeholder relationships
3	HUNGRY	The SBC fails to ensure corporate governance arrangements, policies and procedures, scrutiny are accountable, appropriate and effective, and are linked to output and performance
4	CAUTIOUS	The SBC fails to maintain business continuity and does not have effective cyber resilience plans

5	CAUTIOUS	The SBC fails to recruit and retain the right professionals who are supported and developed appropriately to ensure the organisation has a skilled and motivated workforce
6	OPEN	The SBC fails to timeously or effectively adapt to threats and opportunities brought by technological, economic, political, environmental, legal and structural public sector change

Overview

Strategic Risks are set and aligned with the Strategic Plan and all four of our strategic objectives and run for the 4-years of the Plan. They are reviewed quarterly through Strategic Management Team Meetings. The strategic risk register is the mechanism by which the links are made between strategic aims and operational delivery and performance of services.

Review

As part of internal control and effective business planning the SBC will review the key risks associated with achievement of the SBC's strategic objectives. This will involve assessing the impact of all potential key risks (not only financial risks) and considering how they should be managed. The three main objectives of the quarterly review of the risk register will be to:

- assess existing controls (the measures in place to reduce or limit risk)
- determine the appropriate response to each risk
- agree future review procedures

The strategic risk register will be discussed with the Advisory Audit Board.

SBC staff will discuss and rate the inherent likelihood of each risk occurring, and its impact on quality, cost and timescales should it occur. This is done by assessing and awarding a numerical value between 1 and 5 as to the likelihood of the risk occurring and to the level of impact. These values are then multiplied, and an overall score is awarded.

Controls and mitigating factors are discussed and the risk is re-assessed. Any further planned controls to mitigate the risk are recorded, and a plan action identified.
